Perfectly equipped – with numerous blanket solutions for your horse

For the well-being and protection of your horse, our collection offers a versatile selection of high-quality horse blankets – ideally tailored to the requirements of the warm season.

The classic fly blanket offers proven protection in summer temperatures. The close-knit, soft mesh structure reliably protects the sensitive belly area from flies and other biting and stinging insects. At the same time, the breathable material ensures pleasant air circulation and high wearing comfort.

Specially developed for riding in summer, the riding blanket impresses with its lightweight, breathable mesh fabric. It provides effective protection against insects without restricting the horse's freedom of movement – perfect for undisturbed rides. Thanks to practical Velcro fasteners, it can be put on quickly and easily and fits securely without slipping.

Our multifunctional cooler blanket combines absorbent microfleece on the back with an air-permeable mesh insert in the lower area. This reliably wicks away moisture while providing effective insect protection. With a chest buckle, tail strap and adjustable, removable cross straps, the blanket offers optimal support and comfort.

A real highlight is the turnout rug – a combination of fly and rain protection. The lightweight rug is equipped with a removable 50g liner that provides additional protection for the sensitive back area in cooler temperatures. On warm, sunny days, the airy mesh material ensures pleasant freshness. This means your horse is always well protected in changeable weather.
